Belong

Brian has been gardening since he was a boy, “it makes me feel very good to see those plants. It’s almost like your babies.” says Brian. Being able to keep gardening helps Brian stay connected to his roots and gives him purpose.

Connection

Come together with your friends in the nearby dining area and enjoy a range of freshly prepared meals, good conversation and laughs.

If you have ideas to share, join the food and dining focus group to work with the hospitality team and create seasonal menus for all to enjoy.

Joy

Laughter echoes through the room as Peggy leans over her Bingo card, joking with her friends. “I like playing Bingo and Hoy because it’s the company with the friends,” she shares. For Peggy, it’s more about the special connections and spending time with new friends.

Friends

For Tina, the weekly tradition of happy hour is time to make cherished memories with the wonderful friends she's found at Porter Lodge. "We all get on so well together," she says.

Comfort

Picture walking into your own private space at the end of a fun-filled day. On the walls, artwork and pictures tell your story.

Your bookcase holds your treasured novels, photos and keepsakes that spark a smile. This is your retreat. Here, every detail is a reflection of what makes you, you.

Purpose

Peggy finds joy in making newcomers feel at home. “Even though my eyesight and hearing aren’t what they used to be,” she says, “I still love sharing special moments with my friends.” For Peggy, it’s these connections that give each day its purpose and meaning.

Care

Rhythm of Life®

Your care experience at Anglicare is designed to be as unique as you are. Your independence, routines and preferences matter, and your story shapes the care and support you receive. We're here to walk alongside you, ensuring your care is truly personal to you.

That's why we created Rhythm of Life® - our model for person-centred care. This unique program is guided by eight principles designed to support your choices, enrich your quality of life and empower you to live the way you want.

Everybody...

Has a unique story.

Deserves honour and respect.

Will be supported to make decisions relating to their life.

Will be shown the love of Jesus.

Will have their needs and preferences acknowledged and valued.

Will be encouraged to maintain and develop relationships that are meaningful.

Will be provided with holistic care that meets their individual needs.

Will be supported to feel safe, comfortable, welcome and 'at home'.
